

Tom Innes

---

Tom Innes, Prison Society Board President, is a senior trial attorney with the Defender Association of Philadelphia. Tom has litigated hundreds of bench and jury trials including capital homicide cases. For the past fifteen years, Tom has been the Director of Prison Services for the Defender Association. He is the liaison between the Defender Association and the Philadelphia Department of Prisons and represents the Defender Association on the Philadelphia County Criminal Justice Advisory Board Subcommittee on Prison Population Management. Tom is a member of the Executive Committee of the Criminal Justice Section of the Philadelphia Bar Association and a member of the platform committee of the Pennsylvania Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He was a founding Board member of the Pennsylvania Innocence Project and a past Vice-President of that organization as well as a member of Governor Tom Wolf's Transition Team on Corrections.